

SCORE St. Louis, Chapter 21 Invites you to attend:

Small Business Development Workshop with U.S. Representative Russ Carnahan

If you are a small business owner, or considering starting a small business and would like to learn more about:

The Small Business Administration

The US Department of Commerce

The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act

Contracting Opportunities with the Federal Government

Exporting your Products as a Strategy for Growth

Please join Congressman Carnahan on Saturday, April 24th at Forest Park Community College from 8:30 am-noon in the South Bay Room for a Small Business Workshop. Representatives from the Small Business Administration, US Department of Commerce, Service Corps of Retired Executives (SCORE), Small Business and Technology Development Center, the Veteran's Business Resource Center, the Procurement Technical Assistance Center, and other business assistance organizations will be on hand to share information vital to the startup, development and expansion of small businesses in the St. Louis region.

There is no cost for this event, but registration is required and seating is limited. Please RSVP to Congressman Carnahan's office at (314) 962-1523 or to Tivis.Powers@mail.house.gov. A program, directions, and parking instructions will be forwarded to all participants prior to the workshop.

We hope to see you at this important event!
